

Sunday

Dear Lord,

I thank you for the new wine of blessings that you long to pour into the _____ family. Father, I ask that you would renew them, even as a wineskin is renewed, so that they can contain all that you have for them. Father, I ask that you would make them flexible in your hand. If there is any area of unbelief or condemnation in their lives, I pray that you would remove those things. I ask that you would restore child-like faith to them so they can believe for miracles in [child's name]'s life. I ask for miracles of provision, miracles of favor, and miracles of healing. Help them, Lord, to be able to walk by faith in you, not according to what they see. Thank you, Lord, that you delight in pouring new wine of blessings into their lives each day.

In Jesus' Name,

Amen

“And no one pours new wine into old wineskins. If he does, the wine will burst the skins, and both the wine and the wineskins will be ruined. No, he pours new wine into new wineskins.”

(Mark 2:22, NIV)
