March 7

Dear Heavenly Father,
We thank you that we can come to you each and every day, new and afresh. We thank you that you do not grow weary of hearing our voices or of hearing about those things that are heavy on our hearts—even if we told you about them just yesterday. We thank you that your love and compassions never fail and that they are new every morning (Lam. 3:22-23). It is incredible to think that the mercy you have for us today is new and different from any other day we have lived before. Therefore, we ask you for a new thing today. We ask that we would see new and good things in _____'s life today, especially in (name a few areas of concern). As we lay these requests before you, help us to wait in great expectation that you are the God who can accomplish all things.

In Jesus' Name, Amen

“In the morning, O LORD, you hear my voice; in the morning I lay my requests before you and wait in expectation.”

(Psalm 5:3 NIV)
