Father,

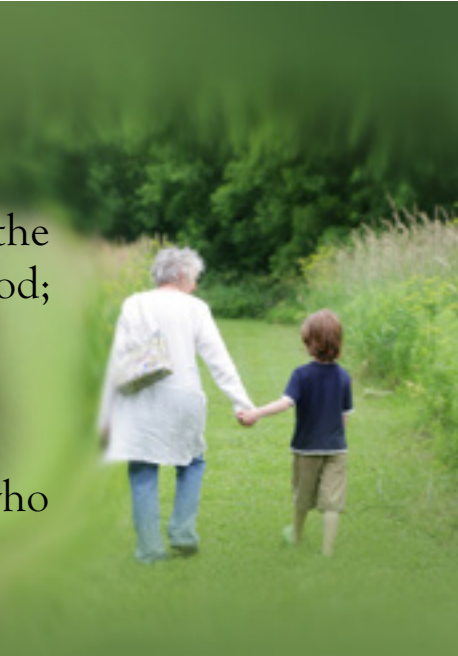

We thank you, Lord, that because of our covenant with you through Jesus, we are in a position to come before you and worship you as a mighty God who is able to do all things. We praise you today for your faithfulness in our lives. We thank you, Lord, for every victory we have already seen in _____'s life. Thank you for (name a few accomplishments in your child's life). We ask that you would continue to move him/her forward into new victories day by day. Now, Lord, show us how to remain in covenant with you by loving you and keeping your commandments. Forgive us, Lord, for any area of our lives where we have broken that covenant with you, and restore us to a right relationship with you so we can move forward and succeed in days ahead.

In Jesus' Name,

Amen

“Know therefore that the LORD your God is God; he is the faithful God, keeping his covenant of love to a thousand generations of those who love him and keep his commands.”
