Dear Lord,
How true this Psalm is for the us! We know that through the blood of Jesus, you have saved us from eternal death, and that while we are here on earth, you have promised us abundant life. Lord, I also know that in heaven there will be no more tears, for which I thank you. But while we are here on earth, there are many tears and disappointments. Lord, I pray that we would not only be able to receive your comfort in times of distress, but that we would also be able to see how you want move us through those times into victory. Father, help us to see how to cast our frustrations and pain on you so that we can be filled with new hope for the future. I pray for great breakthrough to come in days ahead.

In Jesus' Name,
Amen

“He has saved me from death, my eyes from tears, my feet from stumbling. And so I walk in the LORD’s presence as I live here on earth!”
(Psalm 116:8-9, NLT)
