

Sunday

Dear Lord,
I honor and praise you that you not only provide for the _____ family today, but that you have already stored up that which they will need for tomorrow. Lord, I thank you that you know their needs long before they ask, and I thank you that you have the supply to provide for every physical and spiritual need in their lives. Lord, you know the many expenses they incur due to [child's name]'s condition, in addition to the many other needs they have. I ask that in this week you would make financial provision for this family. I ask that you would uncover any hidden supply you have for them, and that you would give them creative ways of multiplying what they have. Father, help them to trust in your promise to be their God who provides. Thank you that your promises for them are sure.

In Jesus' Name,
Amen
