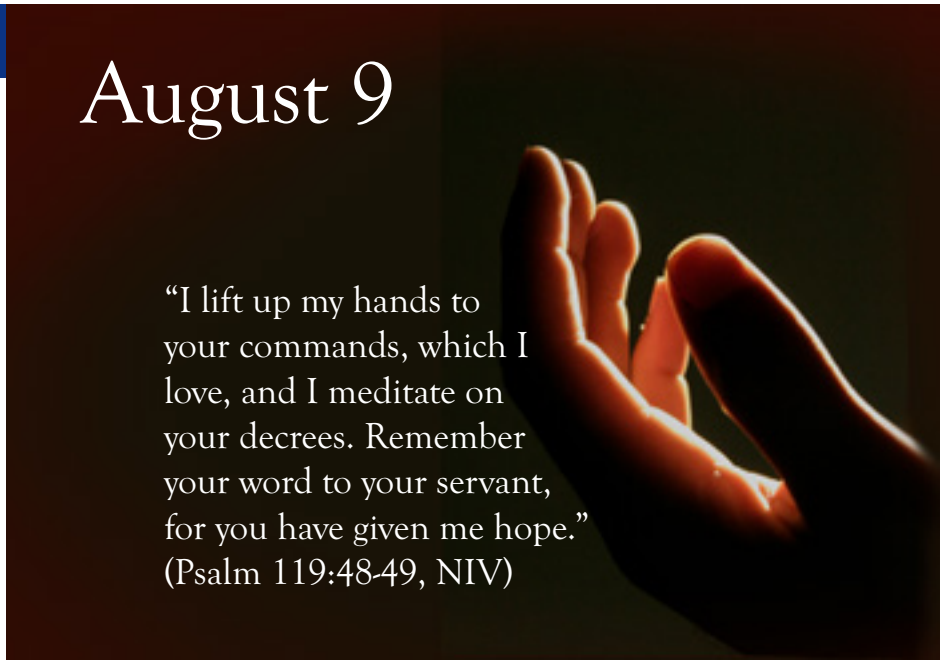
Wednesday

August 9



Dear Lord,
Because of your grace to the _____ family, I ask that you would give them hope and help them to know that you will remember your word to them. You are a God of unfailing love and kindness (Isa. 54:8). I thank you, Lord, that you are trustworthy. Today I seek you for their children and ask that you would draw them to yourself. I thank you that they are your workmanship, created in Jesus to fulfill your perfect will (Eph. 2:10). I pray that you would shape their minds, bodies, spirits, and hearts as they grow. Lord, I especially lift [child's name] to you and ask that you would touch him/her with a new level of healing in this day. Lord, you are the God who makes all things new (Ps. 119:156; 2 Cor. 5:17); therefore I ask that you would renew every aspect of his/her health and life in days ahead.
In Jesus' Name,
Amen

Journal Notes:

CHILDREN OF DESTINY

© Children of Destiny, 2017