

Wednesday

January 10

Heavenly Father,
I ask that today you would help the _____ family to renew their commitment and love for you. I thank you for your promise that when they walk with you, you will speak truths to them that will set them free from every scheme of the evil one. I pray that you would give them the grace and boldness to walk in truth. I also pray that you would speak to [child's name] the truth of who he/she is, and that you would show him/her the plans and purposes that you have for him/her. I thank you that you are the God of all power, able to do mighty things.
In Jesus' Name,
Amen

Jesus said, "If you hold to my teaching, you are really my disciples. Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free."
(John 8:31-32 NIV)

Journal Notes: